Russians Use Allied Tanks Against Nazis

U. S. Press Urges Implementing Anglo-American War Plans Now To Relieve Pressure On Soviet

NEW YORK, July 7.

The "Herald Tribune" said to-day: "It is not certain that Russia can hold. It is not certain that Germany is weakening with time and bombing. There is no ground for complacency. Whatever the Anglo-American plans may be, they must have considered a situation such as the present and provided some means of meeting it. Those plans probably cannot be greatly altered now, but they can be carried through with courage and consistency".

The "Washington Post" wrote "To the extent that Germany has committed her strength in the east, the Allies are provided in the west with an opportunity which may not recur."

GERMANS LOSE 1,271 TANKS AND 314 PLANES

MOSCOW: According to unofficial estimates here the Germans lost 1,271 tanks and 314 planes in two days' tremendous fighting in which they made only insignificant advances.

SOVIET COMMUNIQUE

To-night's Soviet "communique" states, "During July 6 Soviet forces in the Orel-Kursk and Byelgorod directions continued fighting against strong German forces of tanks and infantry.

The enemy's offensive was supported by large numbers of aircraft. In the Orel-Kursk direction all enemy attacks were repulsed with heavy losses.

In the Byelgorod direction the enemy at the cost of heavy losses succeeded in advancing slightly in isolated sectors.

The Moscow Radio reported early to-day that on Monday night a large force of Soviet long-range aircraft attacked enemy troops and equipment in the Orel-Kursk-Byelgorod area.

"Big bomb loads were dropped on troops concentrations and large numbers of tanks, motor vehicles and artillery batteries were destroyed or damaged. Munition dumps were blown up and considerable losses inflicted on the enemy. Two of our planes are missing".

REDS STAND FIRM

The Soviet formation in the Orel-Kursk direction, repelling German attacks, is "firmly holding its position" according to the supplement to the Soviet "communique" to-night.

The Germans threw in 400 tanks but 110 of them were disabled or damaged by Soviet troops who inflicted over 3,000 casualties on the Germans.

Early yesterday morning the Germans renewed attacks in the Byelgorod direction but they were driven back. Later in the day having brought up strong forces of tanks, they attacked again and in one sector at the cost of heavy losses, captured two inhabited localities.

RUSSIAN COUNTER-ATTACK TELLS

Morning dispatch from Reuter's special correspondent.

The two inhabited localities mentioned in the communique were abandoned by the Russians under the pressure of superior forces but "one hour later our forces counter-attacked and succeeded in partially restoring the position," says a dispatch to the 'Red Star'.

Fighting is taking place in the direction of another township, says the 'Red Star' where, however, German tanks, despite repeated attacks, are regularly forced back without crossing Russian frontline.

NAZIS HAVE NO TANK SUPERIORITY

On the Orel-Kursk front, the 'Red Star' reports, the Germans transferred many planes from western Europe but "the Germans nevertheless have not obtained air superiority so far"

The Germans are throwing in three and fourhundred tanks at a time and the Russians are meeting this onslaught with massed air attacks of Stormovics and bombers.

A frontline dispatch to Izvestia reported that on one narrow sector alone the Germans attacked four times yesterday using fresh tanks brought up to replace their heavy losses on Monday. A number of heavy German "Tiger" tanks have been blown up on minefields.

NAZI HOPES SHATTERED

The Germans are obviously basing great hopes on the mark VI tiger tanks a large number of which are attacking in the Byelgorod direction. The Red Army knew of their presence and had been preparing for them and in a general co-ordinated air infantry artillery defence against the tanks is giving excellent account of itself.

German prisoners say that their tank crews cannot stand the terrific fire of the Soviet anti-tank guns and mortars and turn back when caught under it.

RUSSIAN GUNS DO IT.

The latest Soviet guns constitute a great danger to the "Tiger Tanks, writes the Armaments Vice Commissar M. Novikov in an article to-day. Soviet factories are concentrating particularly on anti-tank rifles and anti-tank guns with maximum armour-piercing shells.

Russians Use New Type Tanks

LONDON:—The German overseas radio quoting a Berlin military spokesman said to-day that the Russians are using tanks of completely new types, both Russian and Anglo-American in the battle of the Kursk salient. "The greater number of tanks and planes employed by the Russians in the Kursk area indicates that the enemy had a whole offensive army held in readiness in this area, now the scene of a major battle." the announcer said.

Japan And Siberia

MANCHESTER, July 7: Reports from Washington that Japan is increasing her forces in Manchuria comes as a surprise in London, says the "Manchester Guardian's" London Correspondent. "News received in London until recently at least did not bear out estimates that the Japanese forces line up against the Russian frontier now amount to a million men. The indications here in fact did not point to an imminent attack upon Russia by Japan. Japanese diplomatic relations with Russia are scrupulously correct, and the impression was that Japan sought to avoid any differences with Russia, more especially at this time, when Anglo-American plans for assaults upon Japan's position in the Southern Pacific are developing. Furthermore, if Japan were seeking by preventive action to check future air preparations against her from Siberian bases, it is not likely that she would provoke them by attacking Russia."—Reuter.

The visit to Siam of the Japanese Prime Minister Gen. Hideki Tojo is believed here to be due to friction between the two countries.

CHIANG DEMANDS ANTI-JAP OFFENSIVE

CHUNGKING, July 6.

An appeal for an immediate offensive against the Japanese was made by General Chiang-Kai-Shek in a message to the United Nations on the Seventh Anniversary of the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese war.

Speaking of the danger of allowing Japan to consolidate her gains he declared: "What disquiets the mind of the Chinese people is not whether the United Nations are going to win the war but when they are going to win and at what price."

Marshal Chiang Kai-Shek outlined four war and peace aims: Firstly, there must be no negotiated peace. Secondly, the future peace should seek the emancipation of all mankind. Thirdly, a joint machinery for winning the peace as well as war should be set up by the United Nations. Fourthly, there must be a post-war world organisation with an international force.

Field Marshal Sir Archibald Wavell Viceroy Designate sent the following message to China:—"I am proud that the duties I have been called upon to perform have enabled me to see at first hand something of China's great qualities and have permitted me to make friends among her brave people.

I rejoice that as Viceroy Designate I shall be able to continue that association. The associations between India and China are close.

CHAOS IN VICHY FOOD SITUATION

The Paris radio's commentator M. Jean Paquis in a broadcast to-day made a violent attack on the Laval Government. "Chaos reigns in the whole Vichy administration, particularly in the food departments," Mr. Paquis said. "Scandalous inefficiency is responsible for the food shortage in France. Corruption is paramount in every walk of life and even Government and police officials, with hitherto unblemished records, have a hand in the "Black Market." Some of these officers appointed to fight the "Black Market" have fallen victims to it and are now the leading men behind it."—Reuter.

BENGAL BUDGET DEBACLE

CALCUTTA, July 7

Budget demands for the current financial year not disposed of during the last session were ruled out of order by the Speaker in the Bengal Legislative Assembly to-day. Out of a total of 34 budget demands, eighteen were moved by the last Ministry in March and voted. Owing to the resignation of the Ministry at that stage the remaining demands could not be proceeded with. Sec. 93 of the Government of India Act of 1935, then came into force in the Province till April 24, when a Ministry headed by Sir Nazimuddin came into office.

The new Ministry sought to move the remaining demands at the present session, expenditure already incurred under them between April 1 and 24, during the period of suspension of the constitution being covered by Governor's authorisation.

On a point of order raised by ex-Minister Dr. Syama Prosad Mookerjee, on behalf of the opposition, the Speaker held the motions out of order to-day.

Dr. Mookerjee had urged that in accordance with the provisions of the Government of India Act it was necessary that a revised financial statement should be placed before the Assembly in respect of all grants for the entire year. He had also urged that the present demands mentioned no specific sums as required under the Act and Rules.—A. P.

RELEASE THEM ALL

The Kolhapur Government have set a good example by releasing all political detenus in the State who have been detained since August last. This measure is significant because cases of sabotage or other forms of violence do not seem to have completely ceased in the State. The authorities presumably believe that the general release of detenus will itself help to end violence as most of the detenus are wedded to the policy of non-violence and it is sure to be one of their first concerns to restore non-violence, particularly because they are no longer under the mistaken belief, induced by the Government of India's propaganda, that this time Gandhiji has compromised his creed and policy. If the expectation is fulfilled, it may have a wholesome effect upon other Governments. The general release in Kolhapur is significant for another reason. It is difficult to believe that the bold step would have been taken without the approval of the Viceroy.

If the Viceroy's attitude towards this question has really changed on the eve of his retirement, it has not yet shown itself in any large-scale releases in the provinces. The releases have so far been comparatively few. It is rumoured that Government's policy is to release gradually only rank and file Congressmen, preference being given to those who have undertaken, or have been found willing, to follow constitutional methods of agitation. We feel confident no Congressman will give any undertaking or compromise the traditional policy of Congress, which includes all legitimate and peaceful methods of agitation. It appears Government are adamant on keeping the Congress leaders in prison unless they change the policy of the August resolution. But assuming that the leaders are disposed to make any necessary change in policy, they will naturally refuse to do so except as free men who are in a position to discuss the situation among themselves and with other Congress workers.

It is for this reason and as an essential preliminary to a settlement that many non-Congress leaders have urged Government to release Congress leaders unconditionally and immediately. Among the latest bodies to support this demand is the Agra Provincial Hindu Mahasabha which rightly declares that without the co-operation of the Congress no settlement of the deadlock is possible and that, therefore, "the first necessary step to restore peaceful conditions in the country is that all political prisoners must at once be released." Responsible persons and institutions in Britain and the United States have also made the same demand. The British Communist Party, for instance, urges Government "to release all anti-Fascist political prisoners, give facilities for representatives of the various political bodies to meet in order that they can formulate their joint proposals for the establishment of a Provisional National Government, and open negotiations with Indian leaders with a view to the establishment of a representative Indian National Government as an ally of the United Nations." At a time when all the top leaders of the Congress are in prison and so completely isolated as to be virtually buried alive, at a time when even non-Indians regard their release as the first and foremost need of the hour, it behoves all nationalists in India to concentrate their energies on the demand for the immediate release of Congress leaders and to devise ways and means to make the demand irresistible.

China's Demand

It was, of course, natural that China's Allies should, through their leaders—and a would-be "leader" in Lord Wavell—and Press pay high tribute to her resistance to Japan. But it is interesting to note that not one of the responsible leaders offers a single word of handsome regret for the support that these Allies gave to Japan as against China till 1941 and for their subsequent failure to discharge their obligations towards a country and a people that had been fighting their own War and despite themselves for so many long and tormenting years. It is necessary to mention all this and to recall the past if only because at least one Allied statesman, Mr. Winston Churchill, is in the significant habit of forgetting, often enough, to acknowledge the distinctive position of China among the prominent members of the United Nations.

As to the actual tributes, Generalissimo Chiang-Kai-Shek's message to the United Nations constitutes a neat reply in advance to all of them. The issue is not of verbal praise but of action in honourable discharge of commitments. It is the problem of an immediate offensive against Japan. The Generalissimo calls for it not only because such an offensive is the dire need of China in the seventh year of her single-handed fight, but also because it is the urgent demand of the whole strategy against Japan. The Generalissimo, of course, is right. But will his call be responded to? Some apologists may be tempted to refer conveniently to the battle in the South Pacific. That is far less than what is needed. There is general agreement that the main blow must be struck in and through Burma. What about it? Dr. Sun Fo, in a hopeful hint to the Anglo-American Allies, mentions October. But will the offensive start even in October? And since October is still three long months away, is it utterly impossible for the Allies to step up their assistance to China during the intervening period?

FRANKLY SPEAKING

Retrograde

The decision of the Board of Higher Secondary Education, Delhi, to make English the medium of examination for all subjects except classical and modern Indian languages for the examination to be held in 1946 is clearly a retrograde step and must be opposed by all interested in national education. Nearly twenty years ago the Sadler Commission commended the use of the mother tongue as the medium for high schools and hoped the time would not be far away for its introduction in higher education. Since then the practicability of the use of the mother tongue as the medium even for higher education has been amply proved by the success of the reform in the Osmania University and the Indian Women's University. It is an utterly reactionary step the Delhi Board of Higher Secondary Education has decided on. We trust the Central Advisory Board of Education will strongly disapprove of it.

A Frivolous Prosecution

Mr. Vidya Bhasker, Editor of the "Aj", a daily paper of Benares, may be congratulated on his acquittal of the charge of possessing an alleged objectionable pamphlet. And the Magistrate of Benares, Mr. Onkarnath Misra, may be congratulated on his sensible view that the mere possession by an Editor, who receives all sorts of books for review, cannot be convicted merely on the ground that he possessed an objectionable pamphlet. The prosecution did not even attempt to show that the Editor was aware of the contents of the pamphlet. If there was no proof of this fact his prosecution was frivolous. It is lucky he was given a trial and was tried by a sensible Magistrate.

HARWOOD LEAGUE

Amusing Football At Cooperage

A heavy downpour during the game made Wednesday's Harwood League Match between the Snappers and the Muslim Sports Club an amusing affair.

Slips falls and mis-kicks were the order of the day on a water-logged ground. The Snappers scored half a dozen goals in the first half but nothing in the second. A plucky fight by the Muslims was rewarded by a goal in the latter half.

MAGISTRATE ORDERS CONFISCATION OF CAR

Sequel To Its Use For Distribution Of Prejudicial Leaflets

Judgment was delivered on Tuesday by Mr. I. S. Haji, Presidency Magistrate, Mazagaon, in a case in which the police prosecutor applied for the confiscation of a car or in the alternative for its return to the police as it was alleged to have been used for delivering and distributing Congress bulletins and other prejudicial documents.

The car was seized by the police on December 25, 1942 and it was found to be registered in the name of Dr. Miss Hiramani. The police, in the course of their investigations, found that it belonged to Liladhar Lakhamsi who was arrested on charges of possessing and distributing prejudicial documents, under D.I.R. He was convicted on the first count and acquitted on the other in an earlier case.

In ordering the confiscation of the car the Magistrate said that the car not only facilitated the distribution of prejudicial reports in large quantities and in different parts of the city but was also used to prevent detection. The Magistrate held that the mere fact that the accused prepared or got the receipt of the registration of the car in the name of Dr. Miss Hiramani did not give the ownership of the car to her.

Mr. D. C. Munshi, Police Prosecutor, requested that the car be confiscated or returned to the police who had produced it as an exhibit. Mr. B. B. Pathare who appeared for Dr. Miss Hiramani opposed the application and claimed that the car belonged to her.

SIX ON TRIAL FOR LOOTING MAIL BAG

NASIK, July 7.

The story of the dramatic arrest of a group of six persons who were pursued by the villagers following an attack by the former on a mail runner near the villages of Nalwadi in Sinner Taluka, was narrated in the Sessions Court Nasik, yesterday by witnesses including the Police Patil of the village, when the trial under section 395 read with 398 of the Indian Penal Code commenced.

The accused are alleged to have met at Nasik on April 5 last and chalked out a programme of looting mail bags. On the 'appointed day', on April 7, a runner was approached at a mile's distance from the village, with a request to help a sick man of their gang. The runner having refused, the gang surrounded him and relieved him of the mail bags under threat of dire consequences. The runner later reported the incident to the Police Patil of a nearby village who in turn secured the help of the villagers and effected the arrest. The accused were tried by the Sub-Judge and First Class Magistrate of Sinner who committed them to Sessions.—U. P.

Fazlul Huq's Charge Against Bengal Governor

CALCUTTA, July 6.

In the course of his statement in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on Monday Mr. A. K. Fazlul-Huq, former Prime Minister of Bengal referring to the obstructionist policy of the Governor of Bengal said:—

"I accordingly addressed a letter to the Governor on 2nd August, 1942 explaining to him that the situation was becoming critical and asking him to proceed on constitutional lines," I wrote:—

"I have tried to convince you that by listening to the advice of a few officials, you are acting as if your Ministers did not exist and you were free to deal direct with secretaries and other permanent officials. As the head of the Cabinet I cannot possibly allow this attitude on your part to go unchallenged. When I went there I found that practically all the officials of the Chittagong Division had gathered at Feni with a view to prevent my visit to the place of occurrence. The Commissioner of the Division plainly told me that he had received a telephonic message from your secretary asking him to persuade me to abandon my visit. I did not go to the village because I did not want to quarrel with the officials but met relations of most of the women said to have been outraged and the relations of their deceased husbands. I had also certain documents brought up to me which left no doubt in my mind as to what had happened. The reasons for the telegraphic transfer of the Deputy Collector, and for the anxiety shown by you and the local officials to prevent my visit to the locality are abundantly clear. Even the Chief Minister had to be kept out of the way, because he could not perhaps be trusted to fall into line with the official plans. Further comment is superfluous.

I received no reply to this letter of the 2nd August, 1942, and I was surprised that even in the course of private interviews, Sir John Herbert never referred to the matters I had discussed in the letter regarding my strong criticisms of his actions. It is significant that he never attempted to reply to any of the very serious allegations I had made in that letter although possibly he was all the time harbouring resentment."

MIDNAPORE AFFAIRS

With reference to his statement in the Assembly on Midnapore affairs Mr. Fazlul Huq said, "the matter came up before the House in the course of a discussion on an adjournment motion and all sections of the House except "the European Party strongly urged the appointment of a committee of enquiry. The allegations made were of so serious a character and yet so specific, that it was felt that it would be in the interest of the officials themselves to put the accusers to proofs of their accusations. I agreed. This amounted to a promise to hold an enquiry into the allegations, and when the Governor heard what I had done he wrote to me the following letter:

15th February, 1943.

My Dear Chief Minister,

I have received information which I have difficulty in crediting in view of your report on Midnapore at your last interview, that you have given to-day in the Legislature an undertaking for an enquiry into the conduct of officials in that district. You are well aware that this subject attracts my special responsibilities and you are also well aware of my views on the undesirability of enquiries in this matter. If my information is correct, I shall expect an explanation from you at your interview to-morrow morning of your conduct in failing to consult me before announcing what purports to be the decision of the Government.

Yours sincerely,

WASTE OF PUBLIC MONEY

"As regard the huge sums of money advanced indiscreetly under your orders by the Joint Secretary in the first instance, our legal advisers are extremely dubious if we can ever expect to recover the whole amount. The loss to Government is bound to be a considerable one, and the responsibility for this needless waste of public money must be shared by you and your Joint Secretary.

DEFIANCE OF MINISTERS BY OFFICIALS

"I now come to the class of cases in which permanent officials have acted in defiance of Ministers by completely ignoring their authority.

Let me begin with the case of the outrages alleged to have been committed on women at Sanoa in the District of Noakhali. There was a Deputy Collector at Feni who happened to be the Additional Sub-Divisional Officer at the time, who had sent a telegram to the District Magistrate apprising him of what had occurred and asking for instructions how to proceed. This action on the part of the Deputy Collector was resented by some of the officials, presumably because they thought that the telegram might be a very important piece of evidence against the guilty persons. This officer who had only tried to do this duty, was transferred from Feni by a telegram, at the bidding of the local officials, by the Chief Secretary. And the Chief Secretary passed orders without consulting me who happened to be the Chief Minister and the Home Minister! I came to know of this transfer several days after it had taken place when I went to Feni to find out what the facts of the alleged outrage actually were. I have since seen the papers relating to this transfer. The telegram of course is not on the file, but there is a remark by a high official that the Deputy Collector had acted indiscreetly. We know what this means. The Deputy Collector was naturally frightened and sought safety by applying for leave. This leave was refused, and the officer was summarily transferred to Serajganj, because high officials wanted to bundle him out of the Chittagong division altogether.

"May I in this connection remind you that when you came to know of my programme to visit Feni, you advised me not to go because you thought that my visit would embarrass the local officials? I explained to you that I had no intention of embarrassing anybody, but I considered it my duty to pay a visit to an area where the people seemed to be so much disturbed. When I went there I found that practically all the officials of the Chittagong Division had gathered at Feni with a view to prevent my visit to the place of occurrence. The Commissioner of the Division plainly told me that he had received a telephonic message from your secretary asking him to persuade me to abandon my visit. I did not go to the village because I did not want to quarrel with the officials but met relations of most of the women said to have been outraged and the relations of their deceased husbands. HUQ RESENTS GOVERNOR'S TONE

"I could not take the situation lying down and wrote to the Governor the following reply:

16th February, 1943.

"Dear Sir John,

In reply to your letter of the 15th February, 1943, I write to say that I owe you no explanation whatever in respect of my "conduct" in failing to consult you before announcing what according to you is the decision of the Government; but I certainly owe you a duty to administer a mild warning that indecorous language such as has been used in your letter under reply should in future be avoided in any correspondence between the Governor and his Chief Minister.

Mr. Fazlul Huq's letter to His Excellency further said:

"It appears from your letter that you are not prepared to give your consent to the constitution of a committee of enquiry. If so, the only course left open to me is to make a statement in the House in which I shall endeavour to explain that my statement made yesterday should not be taken as a commitment on the part of the Government to a committee of enquiry, and that I propose to read out to the House your letter under reply so as to explain my position I shall not however do so without giving you previous notice. I am responsible to the legislature and the legislature has a right to expect a sufficient explanation as to why a committee of enquiry cannot be constituted. The only explanation which I can offer is the letter I have received from you."

Mr. Fazlul Huq then went on to give his version of the circumstances of his resignation of office.

"MADE MUSLIMS A NATION OUT OF A CROWD"

Pakistan Is Their Clear-Cut Goal, Says Jinnah

QUETTA, July 6.

The third annual session of the Baluchistan Provincial Muslim League Conference was inaugurated by Mr. M. A. Jinnah on Saturday last. The session lasted two days.

Several resolutions were passed by the conference demanding full-fledged status for the province. Full faith in the goal of Pakistan and Mr. Jinnah was expressed by one resolution, while another warned the Government not to impose any kind of federal or confederal Government on India as any such scheme would be resisted by the Mussalmans with all their might.

Inaugurating the conference Mr. Jinnah said that his visit to the province was not the result of a sudden fancy but the consummation of a long nourished desire. He enumerated the achievements of the All-India Muslim League including the founding of a first-class paper the like of which, he said, the Mussalmans had never seen before. The League had made the Mussalmans a nation out of a crowd and that nation had a positive programme and a clear-cut goal.

He warned the Congress to "give up their unscrupulous methods and the disreputable game of causing divisions and factions amongst the Mussalmans who are wide awake and well prepared under the flag of the League". The League did not harbour ill-will against anybody, Mr. Jinnah added. He asked the Sikhs where they would be in a United India. "We have seen before the outcome of a caste Hindu raj in India—sixty million untouchables. The Sikhs in a United India would be like a drop in the ocean."

Mr. Jinnah deplored the indifference of the administration and their neglect of the education of the people and their civic life. Mr. Jinnah asked the Sardars, Nawabs and Chiefs to read the signs of the times and live with their people and help the League in the task before it. Concluding he exhorted the Mussalmans to shed whatever petty differences they still had. "Remember", he said, "we have one god, one book and one prophet, and we must have one platform, one voice and one goal —Pakistan."

Delivering his presidential address Mr. Isa assured Mr. Jinnah that during the last four years, since the establishment of the Provincial League, a lot had been done for the political and educational awakening of the province but added, however, that a lot more had still to be accomplished. When the most backward tribes of India have been given the right of franchise why should it be denied to this part of this subcontinent of India, he asked.

On the last day of the session a sword was presented to Mr. Jinnah by Mr. Isa on behalf of the Provincial League.—A. P.

BRITAIN'S NATIONAL DEBT SOARS UP

WESTMINSTER, July 7: Britain's national debt now stands at 17,700 million pounds, declared the Financial Secretary to the Treasury, during a debate on the Finance Bill in the Commons to-day.

The Bill was read for the third time without a division.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Kingsley Wood said that last year taxation of all kinds was just under 40 per cent of all private income. The average citizen paid about one-third his entire income in taxation.

BR. LOANS TO ALLIES

WESTMINSTER, July 7

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Kingsley Wood in a written reply in the Commons says that the total amount hitherto advanced to the Allied Governments, exclusive of Lease-Lend, is approximately 195 million sterling.

WITHOUT COMMENT

Continuing Mr. Jinnah said that the All-India Muslim League had always stood and fought for the educational, economic and political uplift of Baluchistan, but it were the people of the province themselves who were responsible for the present state of affairs there.

In an electioneering address, General Smuts assures his fellow Whites of South Africa that "if we open our eyes and bring out what is the best in us and our faith, we can turn the war into a blessing for all mankind.

According to him, he and his compatriots, given the condition, would also make the war "a turning point for freedom, peace or human welfare."

Perhaps by turning what remains not only of coloured Africa but also of Asia into a Smuts "blessing for all mankind", that is, Europeans.

"Where DOES he get all his energy?"

How proud mothers are when other mothers admire their children! And how wise they are when they take care to keep their children full of energy. For a child who hasn't enough energy soon over-taxes his strength, undermines his health.

The important thing is to give your children food that will always fully replace used energy—nourishing food that has vitamins in it. And this is where vitaminised Dalda is such a help. The extra nourishment and vitamin that Dalda adds to food makes all the difference to energy and to health. Have all the family meals prepared with Dalda—every member of the family wants energy.

DALDA—with its VITAMIN content—helps build strong bodies, replace used energy . . . Vitaminised Dalda is a pure cooking medium with a high energy-value. When meals are prepared with it, Dalda gives extra energy-value to all the food. As so many foods are deficient in vitamin, deficient in energy-value, it is wise to prepare all meals with Dalda—for safety.

The Half-Column By "Dim"

Mr. Fazlul Huq's speech in the Bengal Legislative Assembly makes sparkling reading. Not only has the ex-Premier of Bengal made serious allegations against Sir John Herbert, but he has also challenged the Governor to take cognizance of these allegations, the gravity of which charges are stressed by Mr. Huq himself. The situation such as that created in Bengal by the ex-Premier's speech should not be tolerated by a self-respecting English Governor..... (Pardon my cough) ..... Moreover, Mr. Huq speaks of having been made to put his signature on "a fraudulent document." How can a Governor of Province tolerate the impression to creep into the minds of the people that such a thing can even be suspected of the British Raj, after its most glorious 150 years of peaceful, orderly and just rule....
